MINISTER IS GIVEN WATCH BY HIS CHURCH

In a public reception, held in recognition of the impending departure of Dr. J. Morrison Thomas, pastor of the Plymouth Congregational church for Ravenswood, Ill., where he is to assume the pastorate of one of the largest suburban Congregational churches, over two hundred members of the local church attested the popularity of Dr. Thomas and his family.

The minister was presented on behalf of the congregation, with a handsome gold watch, while numerous valuable gifts were tendered to Mrs. Thomas as but slight tokens of the esteem in which she has ever been held by members of the church societies. Both Dr. Thomas and his wife responded with brief speeches, the latter singing her appreciation in the rendition of one of her charming solos, the absence of which will be felt by many members of the local church from the Sunday services.

The presentations followed a brief program in which members of the ministerial association expressed their appreciation of the goodly fellowship and Christian effort of Dr. Thomas in their deliberations and activities. The meeting was presided over by Mr. Jasper Keckley, and was opened by Dr. Henry O. Rowlands, of the Fifth Street Baptist church, who, like Dr. Thomas is a Welshman and to the manner of Christian fellowship born. Among those who participated in the program were Rev. L. C. Sparks, Dr. Rowlands, "Judge" F. E. Holloway, Rev. Calvin Hazlett, Mr. R. N. Northey, Attorney J. V. Hilliard, Attorney J. A. Flory, and Squire D. M. Jones, who made the address of presentation.

The evening's program was concluded by the serving of light refreshments by the ladies of the church and the enjoyment of a social hour in the church parlors, in which the church members individually extended their best wishes to the pastor and his wife for even greater success in the Ravenswood church than has attended their activities in this city.

ENGINE CAME NEAR HITTING A FOURTH ST. CAR

Passengers on a city bound car on the North Fourth street line Thursday night were shocked by their narrow escape from death in a crossing accident. South bound B. and O. train due here about 6:45 o'clock dashed past the car at the North street crossing, an instant after it had cleared the right-of-way of the steam road. Passengers on the street car declare that the locomotive missed the street car by the narrow margin of two or three feet.

"The conductor on the car signaled the motorman that the track was clear," said a passenger to the Advocate Friday. "The car was crossing the tracks when the engine loomed up in the darkness. It dashed past the rear end of the street car so close that passengers on the rear platform could have touched the passing coaches. The conductor turned deathly pale when he realized how closely he had come to being responsible for a horrible accident."

This is an extremely dangerous crossing and the car conductors can not exercise too much precaution in safeguarding the lives of the passengers entrusted to their care.

JULIUS JUCH PRESIDENT OF GERMAN SOCIETY

Election of officers of the German Benevolent Society, held at Vogelmeier's Hall, on South Fourth street, on Wednesday evening, resulted in the selection of Julius Juch as president of the organization for the coming year. Otto A. Vogelmeier was also elected vice president, Jerry Loewendick, secretary, and Henry Vogelmeier, treasurer. Reports of the treasurer for 1911 showed a total of over $100 in the treasury, while other officers intimated that the year had been a most successful one in every way.

STATE APPLE SHOW WILL BE AT ZANESVILLE

The Ohio Horticultural Society's Crop News Bulletin, issued early this week, gives considerable valuable information relative to progress being made in this state along horticultural lines and should arouse a substantial interest in the Ohio Apple Show, to be held in connection with the meeting of the Horticultural Society at Zanesville, Jan. 20-24. Lectures by experts in pomological work are numerous, and the sessions should do much to raise not only the standard of Ohio apples, but the method of their growth by the farmers of the state, the application of modern, scientific methods alone being necessary to put this state in the foremost rank as an apple-producing section of the country.

Of especial interest is an editorial appearing in the Crop News Bulletin regarding possible successors to "Tama Jim" Wilson as secretary of agriculture, which voices the sentiment of every one interested in and identified with the movement for scientific agricultural advancement: "Just at this particular time," says the Bulletin, "every wide-awake agriculturist and horticulturist is speculating as to the next secretary of the U. S. department of agriculture, under President-elect Wilson. The position which will be left vacant at the expiration of the long tenure of office of Secretary James Wilson, is a great one—one in which a little man who has not made a deep study of and had scientific training in many lines intimately related to agriculture in its nationwide scope, would simply be 'suspended on a frail cord' and unable to touch sides, bottom or top. There are very, very few men in the United States who are fitted, either by nature or scientific preparation, for secretary of the U. S. D. A. Let us hope most fervently that our next president may take his time in this matter, look the broad field over, and select the man whose broadness of mind and special qualifications promise to fit him for this important cabinet position. Of one thing we may be sure: such a man will not be found within nor chosen from the great company whose political aspirations are more pronounced than their scientific attainments and fitness."

The Bulletin also contains the announcement that F. H. Ballou of Newark, who is secretary of the State Horticultural Society, will discuss the work of the Ohio Experiment Station's horticultural department at a meeting being held in Lexington, Ky., today.

"SAW DUST TRAIL" IN OPERATION AT COLUMBUS TONIGHT

COLLECTIONS YESTERDAY.
Afternoon $ 187.30
Evening 353.15
Total $ 540.45
Total to date $652.68

The Springfield delegation contributed generously to the incidental expense fund last night at the Sunday tabernacle, but more than $10,000 must be given before collections cease until the free will offering the last day for Rev. Mr. Sunday.

Columbus, Jan. 10.—In a characteristic prayer at the conclusion of last night's meeting, wherein he prayed for all the cities in Ohio where he had held meetings and for all who are assisting in the local campaign, Rev. Billy Sunday indicated that at tonight's service the first call would be made for men and women to come and take a stand for God and the church. He said:

"If we are led of the Spirit to ask men to take a stand for Thee, O Lord, grant that there may be a great outpouring."

Last night's service was notable for the unusual outpouring of out-of-town delegations—Springfield sent almost 1,000 and a brass band—and for the vitriolic attack made by the evangelist on moral leprosy. The sermon is one of what is known as the Big Six, which of all the Sunday sermons, are the only ones published. Interest and enthusiasm at the meeting was intense.

The afternoon's sermon had been characterized by a strong reference to the inaugural ball, for which he said a prayer meeting had better be substituted. He classed society card players for prizes as blackleg gamblers.

Of the Springfield delegation three were called to the platform and gave minute speeches in the value and permanency of the Sunday work in their city. Senator O. F. Hynes said the only reason they didn't bring 10,000 people from Springfield was because they wanted to give Columbus a little chance to hear the evangelist. He said that Springfield people had just had their first anniversary a few days ago and that happier homes, brighter lives and sweeter faces in thousands of instances testified to the value and permanence of the campaign.

W. H. Schaus, a merchant, devoted himself to the choir and the preachers and told them to get out and assist Rev. Mr. Sunday.

Dr. W. B. Patton, who was chief usher, said he would rather live in Columbus for the next six weeks than anywhere else in the world. T. J. Kirkpatrick, a publisher and former infidel, testified that the Sunday work lasts, and he advised all to get in the game and stay in the game.

Miss Jane Packham of Springfield also sang a solo and several selections were sung for the benefit of the Springfield crowd.

Other out-of-town delegations present were: Westerville, 450; Delaware, 150; and Washington C. H., 150. The Springfield band played "Onward, Christian Soldiers," and as they reached the seats reserved for them they stood up and waved a salute to the evangelist.

In the sermon some very plain words were said to girls. "The average young fellow is more particular about the company he keeps than the average girl. With them it's anything under God's heaven. You have steady company. You hold yourself too cheap, girls, too cheap," said Rev. Mr. Sunday.

Stubborn Colds May Lead to Consumption

Did you ever have a cold that would not let go? A cough that persisted, that prevented sleep and made waking hours miserable? Eckman's Alternative is the proper remedy in such cases. Perhaps some simple medicine may be effective where it is your chest is sore and simple remedies don't answer then take Eckman's Alternative. Neglect often leads to more serious trouble; a case in point follows:

THIS CHERRY ST., PHILA., PA.
"Gentlemen: In July, 1905, I first noticed the conditions that showed I had consumption. I lost weight rapidly; had a hollow cough, hemorrhages and very severe night sweats. My brother recommended Eckman's Alternative. In the fall of 1905 I began to take it. At this time I am perfectly well and robust. My appetite is good and my weight has increased from 110 to 140 pounds. Not a trace of my old trouble remains. I will gladly express the merits of this medicine to anyone."

(Signed) M. L. GERHARDT, chemist, Astoria, Hay Fever, Throat and Lung Troubles, and in upbuilding the old-fashioned remedy, Eckman's Alternative, Philadelphia, Pa. For more evidence "For sale by all leading druggists in Newark."

Rev. Mr. Sunday rushed his chair to the pulpit, then sat on the top of the back, with his feet in the seat, leaned over the pulpit, affected to write with a quill and stroked an imaginary long beard, using a quizzical smile as he paraphrased the replies which the Scriptures put in the mouth of the prophet.

The text for the discourse, which made these illustrations apt, was found in the fifth chapter of the second book of Kings, first verse: "But he was a leper." This was used with recurrent effect throughout the discourse, that lasted for an hour and a half.

MASONIC TEMPLE STOCKHOLDERS TO MEET MONDAY

The monthly meeting of the Board of Directors of the Newark Masonic Temple company, scheduled for next Monday evening, will be merged with the annual meeting of the company's stockholders on that evening. The meeting promises to be a most enthusiastic one and the attention of every stockholder is directed to the announcement. The recent awarding of contracts for the new Masonic temple brought a number of large subscriptions to the temple building fund, and it is suggested that Monday evening's meeting may witness even greater response to the need for financial support than has heretofore been manifested.

AMUSEMENTS

"A Modern Eve" Tomorrow.
Probably never in the history of musical comedy in America has the success of Mort H. Singer's latest offering, "A Modern Eve," which comes to the Auditorium tomorrow afternoon and evening, been equalled. It first saw the light in early April of this year at the Garrick theatre, in Chicago, and scored the most emphatic bit of anything in the musical line Mr. Singer ever produced, and that he has "put over" a number of smashing successes is on record. Capacity business was the rule all through the summer months and at the end of six months when it was no longer possible to set back the regular fall bookings of this theatre, the attraction was moved over to the Princess theatre, where it duplicated the Garrick business. During its last year stay at the Garrick theatre it was witnessed by over 250,000 people—a mark that will no doubt stand for some time in matter of attendance for a summer run, not only in Chicago, but any other American city.

The Bial-Tobin Players Next Week.
The Auditorium will have for its attraction all next week the Bial-Tobin Players, supporting Agnes Bial and Frank Tobin. They will open the week's engagement with a scenic production of "The Lost Paradise," a strong drama dealing with capital and labor, presenting "The Minister's Son" on Tuesday and "Going Some" Wednesday. The company comes highly recommended from cities in which it has appeared, and Newark playgoers can look forward to a week of splendid entertainments. Each and every play is produced with all special scenery and effects and has never been presented in this city before. As is customary with all repertoire attractions, ladies will be admitted free on the opening night when accompanied by one paid 30c, or 50c, ticket. Seat sales open Saturday morning. Matinees will be given on Wednesday and Saturday.

"The Pink Lady."
In all there are twenty selected song numbers woven into the score of "The Pink Lady," which is to be seen here for one performance at the Auditorium, Thursday, Jan. 23, and each of these is not there for the simple effect of a good song, but because it forms a part of the story and accelerates its development. In this array it is difficult to single out a number of prominence, but of the many the public has shown a marked preference for "My Beautiful Lady."

The production is a marvelous kaleidoscopic moving picture of costume elegance, scenic splendor and electric brilliance that requires four massive baggage cars to transport it on tour. The company comprises 100 musical comedy celebrities and carries its own orchestra of 30 musicians, and last, but not least, the famous original New Amsterdam (N. Aborn English Grand Opera Co.
In speaking of the nine-week season of the Aborn English Grand Opera company in Baltimore last spring, the Baltimore Morning Sun said: "The advent of the Aborn Company at Ford's is one of the most welcome attractions offered annually in this city, and its pronounced success affords decided proof of the high plane on which the Messrs. Aborn present grand opera in English." An early attraction at the Auditorium.

Orpheum Theatre.
A great big feature show is appearing at the Orpheum theatre. It was late in arriving Thursday evening, and a short delay was caused on that account, but Manager Boyce and his assistants, Messrs. Cranston and Eldon, soon had things running smoothly. The show opened to a capacity audience, and every person witnessing the initial production last evening became a booster, for it is one of the top-liners playing the Murray vaudeville circuit.

The DeChancetel Sisters opened the bill. The young ladies have a refined singing and dancing act and made a big hit with their clever work.

sketch, "The New Minister," proved to be clever performers. Miss St. Vincent has an excellent character part and is very clever, as is also Mr. Mack.

Bobby Byrd was next on the bill. He is a young man with a decided versatility in character impersonations, has an excellent baritone voice which he uses to advantage in several Italian and Irish selections. In the last part of his act he gives an impersonation of Chauncey Olcott in his famous Irish selections. The young man is well named—he is certainly a bird when it comes to being a real entertainer.

The next act is put on by the best acrobats ever playing the Orpheum, Burdfield, Burnes and Bartlett. The three young men in the act can be proud of their work, as they do not make one move in the entire act without bringing down the house.

This bill is the best offered this season and everyone should see it. A big amateur bill is in line for tonight at the Orpheum theatre. A dramatic company composed of Newark boys is going to produce the play, "Uncle Tom's Cabin." Ed Ryan will play the part of Marks the lawyer, and double the part of Little Eva. James Madison will play the part of Eliza, the lady who crosses the ice. Harry Gebhart will play Uncle Tom. Leo Madison will play the part of the deep-dyed villain, Simon Legree, the slave driver. In the last act of the play Little Eva will be seen going to heaven, with all the clouds and red fire to make the scene as real as possible. Do not miss this, as it will be the biggest treat of the season.

DANIEL HAYES.
Daniel Hayes, 50, former sanitary policeman, well known as a glass worker, died Thursday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at his home in North Fourth street of lung trouble from which he has suffered for several years. His death was unexpected and caused much surprise among those who knew him.

He has been a resident of Newark for the past twelve years or more. He came to Newark with his family from Zanesville. He was for several years employed at the plant of the American Bottle Company as a glass blower. He served as a member of the board of quadrennial appraisers and during the term of Mayor Ankele he was appointed sanitary officer in the health department. He served in this office until Mayor Ankele was succeeded by Mr. Swartz. For the past year he has been with the E. T. Johnson Insurance agency.

Besides his wife he is survived by three daughters, one son, and a brother. His children are Mrs. Mable Early of Ft. Wayne, Ind.; Mrs. Frank R. Doney of Columbus; Margaret Hayes of Chicago. MILTON MONROE.
Milton Monroe, who suffered a stroke of paralysis two weeks ago, passed away at 11:20 o'clock Friday morning at the home of his daughter, Mrs. F. A. Boner on South German street.

The deceased was 79 years of age and was born in Muskingum county, where he was married in his young manhood to Miss Emeline Fuller of Morgan county.

For many years Mr. Monroe was identified with the mechanical departments of the Baltimore and Ohio and Panhandle railroads, here and in Columbus, but retired about fifteen years ago, shortly prior to the death of his wife.

Surviving him are two children, a son, Joseph W. Monroe of Cambridge, and Mrs. F. A. Boner of this city. Arrangements for the funeral will be announced later.

NATHAN MATTINGLY.
Mr. A. Mattingly, a prominent farmer residing east of the city, was called away by the death of his father, Nathan Mattingly, living nine miles west of Zanesville, near Pleasant Valley. Had he lived until April he would have seen his 92d birthday. On the first of the same month he would have been married 67 years. He is survived by his wife, three sons and two daughters. Mr. Mattingly often visited in Newark and his sudden death, caused by heart disease, will be a shock to his many friends here.

MRS. ARTEMESIA BRUMBACK WINTER.
After an illness of several weeks, induced by heart trouble, Mrs. Artemesia Brumback Winter, aged 67 years, passed away early Friday morning. Arrangements for the funeral have not yet been completed, but the interment will probably be made at Granville, where the remains of a sister of the deceased were laid to rest about two months ago.

The deceased was born on the Brumback farm near Jacksonstown, June 18th, 1845, and spent her early life, as well as declining years, in this county. After graduating from Shepherd college, Granville, with the class of 1866, she became a member of the faculty of Elmira College, Ill., serving in that capacity for eleven years. She was then married to Dr. David Winter, and practiced medicine with him in this city for fourteen years.

Besides her husband, the deceased is survived by two brothers, Henry Brumback of Mt. MR. MUNSEY'S POLITICAL HOLDING COMPANY

Who but Frank A. Munsey—or maybe George W. Perkins—could have conceived the eminently Armageddonish scheme of reuniting the Republican and Progressive parties by "a holding party" to take the two organizations over,
"as a holding company in the business world takes over and amalgamates competing concerns."

The Republican party used to be in the hands of a holding company, with Theodore Roosevelt as a voting trust. In those days battling for the Lord was "a perfectly corking time," and the enemy at Armageddon was "slugged over the ropes" and "beaten to a frazzle."

Then came the day when the Taft Administration, following the rule of reason laid down by the Supreme Court in the Standard Oil case, undertook to abolish the voting trust and dissolve the holding company. The Colonel promptly grabbed all the assets that he could lay his hands on and organized a competing party which manufactured and sold the same old standpat goods under a new name.
Both concerns are now in a bad way, and it is not surprising that Brother Munsey looks back regretfully to the days of old political trust. But we fear he is too late.

As Mr. Morgan once felicitously remarked, with the consent and approval of the Colonel himself:
"You can't unseamable eggs."

WILL SUBMIT QUESTION TO THE ATTY. GENERAL

Prosecuting Attorney J. Howard Jones will ask Attorney General Hogan for an opinion on the sections of the General Code concerning the borrowing of money by boards of education to meet the salaries of teachers and other employees.

The matter came to the attention of the Prosecutor through a query addressed to him by Dudley A. Taylor, in behalf of the Helton School district.

Mr. Jones referred the Helton matter to Section 556 of the Code, telling him that the wording of the section is wide enough to admit the action, but that the construction seems to be so much at variance with the general spirit of the law to make its applicability doubtful.

Mr. Jones said that in view of the statutory law and prior to any adverse ruling by the Attorney General, the board may borrow the money. He adds that he considers the question of such importance that he will submit it to the Attorney General.

MEETING TONIGHT.

The first meeting of the board of education in its new offices in the High school building will be held tonight when the board will make its final choice of the vacuum cleaners to be installed in the new buildings now under construction.

The work on the buildings reached a point where the workmen are ready for the installation of the cleaning devices and for this reason the board will close the matter at a special meeting tonight.

A husband and wife are supposed to be one, but that doesn't always mean single blessedness.

"Sellers of Good Clothes"

FIRST THINGS

The first "Man-of-the-moment" advertisement ever printed in an American paper, so far as known, appeared in today's Jan. 10, 1888. It read as follows:

"John Jacob Astor, at No. 81 Queen street, New York, has for sale an assortment of 'Piano-Fortes' of the newest construction, made by the best makers in London, which he will sell on reasonable terms. He gives cash for all kinds of Furs and has for sale a quantity of Canada Beaver and Beaver Clothing, Raccoon Skins and Raccoon Blankets, Muskrat Skins, etc., etc."

The John Jacob Astor who thus advertised his wares was the founder of the Astor dynasty and the ancestor of Vincent Astor, the world's richest bachelor. The offer to dispose of "piano-fortes" on "reasonable terms" smacks of modern business methods of "offering dollars down and five dollars a week." The "piano-fortes" of the latter part of the nineteenth century were cumbersome instruments, a little smaller than a house, and were probably of the type of pianos which were disposed of at auction in New York recently for 27 cents each.

BRONCHITIS SUFFERER

Takes Druggist's Advice With Splendid Results.

If any one should know the worth of a medicine, it is the retail druggist who sells it. His customer is not a stranger, and he is in a position to know what remedy affords the best satisfaction.

Mrs. Frank B. Jones, of West San, Lake, N. Y., says: "For a number of years I was a great sufferer from bronchitis. Last July I had an attack which was more severe than any I had before. I was unable to leave from home. Then I was advised to try a medicine called 'Cough Syrup.' It was a great relief. My cough has left me. I have gained in weight and appetite and I am as strong as ever. I would advise all who have bronchitis, chronic or acute, to who are run-down to try it."

It is the best and most reliable of all medicines for bronchitis, and it is sold in every drug store. It is a great relief to the sufferer from bronchitis, and it is a great relief to the doctor who prescribes it. It is a great relief to the patient who takes it. It is a great relief to the family who uses it. It is a great relief to the world who knows it.

COURT NEWS

Common Pleas Court.

In Common Pleas court on Friday, the court took up the case of William S. Warthan vs. William Harvey. The plaintiff asks the court to establish and declare the true boundary line between the premises of plaintiff and defendant. Plaintiff also asks for a temporary injunction restraining the defendant from interfering with his premises in constructing a proposed building, the question being as to whether the defendant is encroaching upon the land of the plaintiff.

The property in question is located at Union. A large number of witnesses were in attendance upon the court all day Friday.

Smith Pleaded Guilty.

Joe Smith, the one-armed colored bank dealer, who was bound over to probate court from the court of Mayor Schwartz on a charge of inducing two East Newark boys to steal metal from the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Company, was fined $10 and costs by Judge Robbins Hunter Friday morning.

The two boys were brought into court as witnesses and testified that Smith told them to steal the metal and that he would buy it from them. When arraigned Smith entered a plea of guilty.

After the sentence of the court had been passed the prisoner was allowed to make an effort to get the money necessary to pay the fine and costs. The defendant in the case was unable to do and the court ordered him committed to the county jail.

Divorce Hearing.

The divorce matter of Estle M. Swisher vs. Thurston Swisher was called for hearing in probate court on Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. Swisher's husband filed an answer to her petition, but later withdrew it.

The plaintiff asked divorce on the grounds of cross-petition of duty, but the court held the matter up for further consideration.

"Squire Jones' Court."

Charles May, of Somerset, was fined $2 and costs and committed to probation jail on Thursday by "Squire D. M. Jones" following the finding of an affidavit by Baltimore and Ohio Officer Geo. J. Meyer, which charged May with intoxication.

Admitted Insane.

After being in some very violent condition for some time, and after being attended by a physician, Mrs. Mary E. Glover, the wife of J. H. Glover, of 11 Wilkins street, was admitted to the probate court on Thursday afternoon.

The case was made more difficult by the fact that Mrs. Glover is but 35 years of age.

The physician testifying in the case were Dr. W. C. Beck and Dr. H. D. Egan.

CORN SHOW SAMPLES TO BE SOLD AT AUCTION

Licking county farmers will be given an opportunity Saturday to purchase fine seed corn when the exhibits at the Newark corn show at Brennan hall will be offered at auction.

All this corn was scored Friday morning by W. C. Hall and it is said to be the finest lot of corn ever exhibited in Newark. It is of great value for seed and in all probability the Licking county farmers will bid eagerly for possession of the exhibits. The corn will be offered in ten ear samples with a few single ear samples to be disposed of.

The bidding will start at 1 o'clock Saturday afternoon in the corn department of the county show.

The scoring of the poultry was concluded Thursday and the premiums and specials awarded. A meeting of the poultry association was held last night and the following officers elected:

President—B. F. Kent.
Vice President—T. E. Adams.
Secretary-Treasurer—E. M. Larson.
Assistant Secretary-Treasurer—R. A. Belt.
Supintendent—William Warrington.
Assistant Superintendent—Alec Wilson.

Executive committee—T. D. Keys, C. W. Kent, F. E. Corkwell, Dr. W. L. Jackson, Alec Wilson.

A meeting will be held Monday night, Jan. 20, when further plans will be laid for the next annual exhibition and the details of the 1913 show will be settled.

It is the intention of the organization to make the next show bigger and better than ever.

ORDER OF LIONS

Mr. Orrin D. Enoch, Royal Organizer, sends a note to the Advocate, saying:

"The Royal Order of Lions will not be instituted here until after the trouble at Columbus is settled. All the members who paid money into the Lions have been sent a postoffice money order. All money has been returned."

Wants Taft to Appoint Democrat Surveyor at Dayton

Washington, Jan. 10.—Senator From Ohio today obtained a promise from President Taft to nominate a Democrat as surveyor of customs at Dayton, succeeding A. K. McGonaghy, who believed of Senator Burton, his Republican colleague will agree.

"My child was injured terribly about a year ago," said a mother from Dayton, Ohio, "and I have been unable to get her back into her normal state. I have tried everything and have failed. I have heard of the 'Newark Trust Building' and I have decided to try it. I have written to you and I hope you will be able to help me."

She will be glad to hear of any success.

NO RESERVATIONS AT SUNDAY TABERNACLE

Many have been invited about reservations for delegations attending the Sunday meetings in Columbus. A communication received from the headquarters by the local committee in charge of making arrangements for a party from Newark, says: "No more reservations will be made for parties coming from other places. The party from Newark had best make their own arrangements, independently of any parties."

NEWLY WEDS MAROONED IN SMOKY CITY

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Rossel, who were married in Akron Tuesday morning, arrived in the city Thursday for a few days visit with the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Rossel in Geneva street. The newly wedded couple were forced to abandon a contemplated eastern honeymoon tour at Pittsburgh on account of the indisposition of the groom, who with his bride became marooned at the home of a friend Tuesday night in the Smoky City where a reception was being tendered in their honor. Shortly after midnight the newlyweds started for their hotel and were forced to make a part of the journey in a shift on account of high waters. The groom overpowered himself in rowing and caught a severe cold which for a time threatened to culminate in a bad case of the grip and they decided to return to Newark where he might recuperate and receive careful nursing.

In leaving Akron after the wedding breakfast Mr. and Mrs. Rossel had an experience that they will long remember. Their friends played many kinds of practical jokes on them and caused them much annoyance. They had ordered a taxi-cab to take them to the depot and Mr. Gene Schlegel of this city, who was the groom's best man, called up the taxi-cab company and stated that he had just been married and wished to avoid publicity and to send a closed cab and instruct the driver to take them to Cuyahoga Falls, where he wished to catch a train. When the taxi arrived the friends escorted the newlyweds to the cab and away it started. After a long time had elapsed Mr. Rossel wondered why they did not arrive at the station and drawing the blind aside discovered they were in the country. He only had a short time to catch his train and as they were to be tendered a reception at Pittsburgh that night it was necessary to make it. He stopped the driver and told him to make the run of his life for the train, promising him $5 if he succeeded. They arrived just as the train was pulling in and found their friends there to greet them. Entering the coach they were accompanied by Mr. Schlegel and the bride's maid, Mr. Schlegel mounting a seat and announcing that his friends had just been married and as they were both inexperienced he trusted that their fellow travelers would look after their comfort and take good care of them. He then with the assistance of the bride's maid emptied five pounds of rice over them and with his companion jumped from the train. Mr. Rossel states that he is glad to get home, that the experience has been a strenuous one, but that it certainly has been worth while.

BIPLANE STUCK IN AIR HOLE IN ICE AT SANDUSKY

Sandusky, Jan. 10.—Weldon B. Cook, a professional aviator, had a narrow escape from drowning here when a biplane constructed after his own design stuck in an air hole in the ice on the bay here, when he attempted a flight across the bay. He had just made two flights across the bay, and had loaded the biplane with chains to decrease the speed. The weight dragged the machine down and it tried to plunge through the air hole, but the hole in the ice was too small.

Cook was unhurt, but his efforts to dislodge the machine from the hole have been unsuccessful.

THEN MGR. FENBERG TREATED THE BUNCH

Handsome, genial George Fenberg manager of the Orpheum theatre at Canton, had one put over on him Thursday morning, states the Canton News. Sam Hood, who was billed for the Orpheum, came in on a hurry wire, owing to the cancellation of another act. When Hood arrived in town Thursday morning Mr. Fenberg met him, and when the two faced each other, the manager said:

"You say you are a comedian?"

"Yes, sir," replied the actor.

"Then make me laugh."

"All right, sir; take off your shoes."

"How dare you? Why should I take off my shoes?"

"So I can tickle your feet, sir."

Then Des Kirk, who has recently joined the ranks of Canton's theatrical circles and who is doing the publicity work for Canton's handsome new Keith theatre, "wisecracked" a crowd of kindred Bohemians, and one at a time they would drop around into the Orpheum lobby and ask George if he wanted some one to make him laugh.

Manager Fenberg hid out for a while, but they sent messengers after him and he finally agreed to do the proper thing and invited his friends over to the Marlow, where a nice little luncheon, etc., was served. Mr. Fenberg says that hereafter when he wants to kid any one he will go out to the barn and kid himself, where no one can hear him.

THE STORE OF NEWARK, OHIO, WHERE QUALITY COUNTS

NEWARK NOW VIES WITH PITTSBURG IN MERCHANDISE

Newark, thanks to the advent of the parcel post, is evidently destined to become a rival of Pittsburgh—not as a producer of licentiousness in the form of millionaires, but as a city whose stores are bound to demand the attention of mercantile buyer. This was demonstrated this morning when Meyer & Lindorf received at their local store a letter from Mrs. O. F. Joseph of the steel city, requesting that ten yards of unbleached muslin, 36 inches wide, be sent her at once by parcel post. She enclosed a $1 bill, evidently basing her calculations on current prices in the Pittsburgh market. The package went forward this morning, as well as a letter sending 15 cents change and the thanks of the local firm for the unusual order.

"The order is rather a mystery," said Mr. Lindorf later. "We do sell muslin unusually cheap for such grades, and I believe that buyers in the large cities are going to do considerable trading in this way in the future. Mrs. Joseph, whoever she may be, is certainly profiting to the extent of several cents, in spite of the cost of shipping the package via parcel post."

ATTENTION, G. A. R. AND OLD GUARDS

The funeral of another one of our comrades, H. H. May, will be held Sunday at 2 o'clock. All of the comrades will assemble at the United Brethren church, East Newark at 1 o'clock, sharp. Burial at Cedar Hill where the G. A. R. ceremony will be given and a salute fired by the old Guard. H. D. Burkh, Commander.

BOYS' BIG MEETING SUNDAY AT 2:00 P. M.

The speaker for next Sunday's meeting will be Dr. Roland, at present the pastor of the Fifth street Baptist church. Besides the short talk, a film of some good weekly will be shown. Beginning Jan. 19 and ending April 13 a series of ten meetings has been arranged for. Cards have been printed on which the boys will find the date of each meeting. The boys attending the meeting next Sunday will be handed these cards on which they may write their names and addresses. When the boy holding this card has attended at least eight meetings and has had his card punched each time, he will be entitled to a free night at the Y. M. C. A. These meetings will be conducted much the same as the previous meetings of the year.

Different From Anything You're Reading!

That's THE COUNTRY GENTLEMAN, and Here's the Proof in This Week's Issue

Knowing How About Hogs

If a man can raise hogs that are good enough to win the highest honors at the greatest livestock show in the world he must know something about what is good for a hog. That's what we thought when we asked H. T. Morgan to write us an article on what to put into a hog to get the most out of him. More than once Mr. Morgan has brought fat hogs to the International Livestock Exposition that won highest honors on foot and on the block. A hog that wins in the carcass contest has been fed rightly. Morgan knows how. Read his article.

A Lot of Little Worlds

Down in Maryland Nature has made a ragged job of the shore line. Every few miles there is a long inlet or estuary and boats run away up into the country to get the farmer's produce. Farmers fifteen miles apart have different boat lines, and for that reason they don't get together as often as most farmers. Going across a river presents more difficulties than crossing the road—the hen stays on the other side, too. J. Russell Smith went down there and found that each little peninsula was a little world by itself, growing its own peculiar crops. He has written several articles about these rich little worlds that are surrounded by oyster beds. This is the first of the series.

My Little Farm

This is a story written by a man who is "his own boss" and who doesn't "believe in cutting wood with a bucksaw." He came from England a poor man and settled in Canada. His first job was with a truck gardener, and he tells how he improved on his employer's methods and finally came to own a farm of his own. It is a simple story of a man who worked with his shirt and his mind open.

Eating Our Heads Off

That is what some of us are doing. Indigestion is the great American disease. It's a sneak. You go on peacefully eating until it creeps on you and makes you think something else is the matter with you. Heart disease, liver complaints, headaches, are usually only fancy disguises of indigestion. The human body is like a gasoline engine which, when loaded up on poor gasoline, gradually clogs up, slows down and stops. The farmer has the finest food available, but does he use it rightly? Dr. Roger J. Perkins tells of the evils of Pie and Fry.

The Cereal of The South

We have a growing rice industry. This food crop, the mainstay of several nations, can be grown to perfection on many adaptable lands in the Southern States. It is immensely profitable where well managed. It does not unduly exhaust the soil: it is a crop worth studying. Read about it in the article, "Where Rice is King," by F. G. Moorhead.

A Corncob Conserver

"The reason men succeed who mind their own business is because they have so little competition." This is the motto that hangs in the living-room of a Kansas farmer. He has minded his own business so well that he now owns a lot of rich prairie land and the biggest battery of silos in the country. He is one of those fellows who puts the oil where the squeak is. He says a mowing-machine ought to last fifteen years. His did. He doesn't waste his corncobs, either. Charles Dillon has written a mighty interesting article on this man and his farm. You'll like it.

Cashing-In Farm Credit

The vital fact in all this rural credit agitation frequently overlooked is: What has the farmer to offer for the money he wants to borrow? How will he pay it back, even if the loan is for a long term of years? What secures the investment? What is the greatest asset of a farm? Why must methods be improved before cash will be forthcoming? These and a dozen other pertinent questions are answered by Mr. B. F. Harris, the Illinois farmer-banker. He knows the farmer's side because he runs a farm of his own; and he knows the banker's side because that is his chief business. What he says is fundamental and mighty important.

Sixteen Years of Plenty

Secretary James Wilson has directed the United States Department of Agriculture through a period of the greatest development of American farming. His report, just issued, is a historic document, tracing the expansion of agriculture through these years of increasing farm production. Read the summary. It is inspiring and suggestive, and a weathervane of the future of farming.

A Paragraph That Men Can Skip

During the coming year we shall devote more space to the do-it-yourself side of the household. And we shall do this, not by taking away anything from the man's department, but by increasing the size of the weekly. Space does not permit us to tell here all our plans for the countrywoman; but these plans include the woman's sphere from cellar to garret and from hedge-row to hedge-row; and her clothes from head to foot. In this number we begin a fashion department for women, which will appear fortnightly—often if there is a large demand for it. Nor shall we forget the woman's church and social life, her children and the schools.

EVERYMAN'S GARDEN

Are you willing to pay a few cents a week for a year's instruction, telling you every week, a most in words of one as 'able, what to do with that little garden of yours? You are too wrapped up in business to take time enough to learn gardening—but you insist on pottering around your garden and blaming the seedsman for your failures. It's our job to prevent the failures. And we propose to do it each week of the coming year in a simple, practical way.

The athletes composing the Newark basketball team received an awful jolt Thursday night when they stacked up against the Denison team at Hickey Hall. When the smoke of the fray cleared and count was taken, it was found that the collegians had scored 83 points while Newark was making but 19. Black proved to be the real star of the game. He tossed 19 of the baskets, scoring 25 points for his team.

TERRE HAUTE MAN CALLED TO NEWARK

By the unanimous action of the congregation of the Second Presbyterian church, at an enthusiastic meeting held last evening, Dr. Don D. Tullis, now pastor of the Washington Avenue Presbyterian church of Terre Haute, Ind., was called to the pastorate of the local church and it is believed that his acceptance will be forthcoming without delay. Dr. Tullis preached at the Second Presbyterian church about three weeks ago and his highly intellectual ability and sterling reputation as an exponent of the Christian gospel won the admiration of all who heard him. For the past five years he has been engaged in the Indiana church and has been, according to all reports from Terre Haute, one of the most successful preachers in the entire city. Prior to 1908, for four years he was pastor of one of the largest Presbyterian churches of Cincinnati, where he was also extremely popular and successful in point of additions to his church.

The Terre Haute man is comparatively young, is married and has one child, two years of age. There is little doubt of his accepting the local charge, as he seemed greatly pleased with the community and the personnel of the church membership on his recent visit here, and intimated that he would not be averse to considering the call, were it extended to him. He would be unable to leave the Indiana church for at least a month, however, as a change in his pastorate necessitates the formal action of not only the Indiana Presbytery, but also the local presbytery's formal ratification of the change.

BOAT BLOWS UP AFTER OWNER HAD SUICIDED

Mobile, Ala., Jan. 14.—The Tom-bee River steamboat James T.
 Staples was wrecked and her captain and perhaps four others were killed and eight persons severely injured when one of the boat's boilers exploded near Bladen, Ala. last night.
 It is believed the bodies of the four missing persons may be found in the ruins of the hull, which floated down the river in flames.

River men note a coincidence in that the explosion occurred at the point most nearly accessible by boat to the grave of the boat's late owner, Captain Norman A. Staples, who killed himself a week ago.

HUMANE OFFICER INVESTIGATES 170 CASES 1912

Humane Officer James P. Harris in his annual report submitted Thursday states that the society which he represents has inquired into 170 cases, including cruelty to animals and children as well as a few cases of cruelty to grown persons.

Six cases were brought to trial, resulting in three convictions and three acquittals. Mr. Harris now has four cases of cruelty pending in the courts.
 Twenty of the cases brought to the attention of the officer were found to be groundless after an investigation.
 Mr. Harris takes occasion to commend the action of the majority of horse owners for their care of the faithful beasts. More blankets and rain protectors are being used than before. He also extends his thanks to the police department, the county officials and the press for assistance in the discharge of the duties of his office.

COMMUNICATED

Editor Advocate:—In your article of yesterday on the Canal Land Fund company you speak of the Ohio Electric road probably wanting to purchase between Second and Third streets for depot purposes, providing its franchise shall be extended. I have thought for some time that the city ought to get hold of this piece of ground soon, of above, and on say Third street, build three stories for the Central fire department, with three or four large entrances, and on say Second street, build three stories for the City Hall, and between Second and Third streets, build two stories for the city market house below, and all the city offices above, or rent some of the offices out, if too many for the city to occupy. This would be a fine location, and on this amount of ground, there would be room enough to erect a grand building, right in the heart of the city.

In selling the old City Hall, say for $40,000 or $50,000, they could buy the said ground system of above, with same funds, and still have left a big sum, after paying for the purchase of the site of the old City Hall.
